Sleeping arrangements
We would prefer that you not drive home and we have plenty of floor space, so please bring air mattresses, security blanket, blow up dolls etc. to sleep with/on or bring your tent to camp out. Hell, you can even sleep in the barn or the shed if you don't mind the critters. (Eek! I'm starting to sound like a Manasshole!)

Parking

Please feel free to park on the driveway if you're staying the night and don't mind your car being blocked in. Otherwise, I would recommend parking on the street.
